Offered at the Greenbrier Resort,
White Sulphur Springs, WV

Saturday and Sunday
Oct. 21-22, 2017

Program overview and objectives

The world renowned faculty of this conference will present an update on vascular/endovascular topics. This program is designed for general surgeons, vascular surgeons, interventional vascular radiologists, cardiologists, neurologists, internists, family practitioners, nurses and allied health professionals interested in the diagnosis and treatment of patients with vascular disease as well as the management of common vascular disorders. No prerequisites are required. The latest concepts, methodologies and techniques in the surgical and percutaneous management of patients with vascular disease will be explored through presentations and panel discussions.

After completing this course, participants should be able to:

- Review the basics for vascular surgery including preoperative cardiovascular evaluation, risk assessment and DVT management
- Examine hemodialysis access in vascular surgery
- Review current advances in structural heart disease
- Discuss the treatment and management of asymptomatic carotid disease/stroke
- Discuss carotid artery stenting and the radiologists perspective
- Review and debate current carotid guidelines and the use of carotid stenting in the future
- Discuss improving vascular outcomes with TCAR
- Review endovascular and open management of abdominal aortic aneurysms and femoral artery aneurysms

Program overview and objectives continued

- Examine abdominal aortic aneurysm and thoracic aneurysm open and endo repair including small abdominal aortic aneurysm, low profile endograft developments, managing short necks and juxtarenal aortic aneurysms
- Discuss the current status of secondary interventions following EVAR
- Discuss current treatment of venous ulcers and best approach to wound healing
- Discuss avoiding and treating complications after saphenous vein thermal ablation
- Review and discuss adversity and success in vascular surgery
- Examine endovascular and open treatment of acute and chronic mesenteric ischemia
- Debate the obesity paradox and vascular surgery outcomes
- Review endovascular repair vs. open lower extremity bypass
- Discuss cost constraints in the adoption of new endovascular therapies

A panel discussion about challenging cases will end the session on Sunday. Nationally and internationally known speakers will serve as faculty.

Accreditation

Saturday accreditation

In support of improving patient care, CAMC Health Education and Research Institute is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE) and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), to provide continuing education for the health care team.

JOINTLY ACCREDITED PROVIDER™
INTERPROFESSIONAL CONTINUING EDUCATION

Physicians - The CAMC Institute designates this live activity for a maximum of 7 AMA PRA Category I credit(s)™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in this activity.

Nurses - The CAMC Institute is an approved provider of continuing nursing education by West Virginia Nurses Association (AO-212), an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Centers Commission on Accreditation. This offering has been approved for 7 contact hours (PO15-18-17204 ). Expiration date is 2 years from the course date.

Pharmacy - The CAMC Institute is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education as a provider of continuing pharmacy education. To receive credit, participants must complete the sign-in sheet, attend each session and complete an evaluation. ACPE credits will be posted online to the CPE Monitor within six (6) weeks following the activity. This knowledge based activity provides 7 contact hours 0554-0000-17-030-L04.

Sunday accreditation

This renowned property offers 721 rooms, including exquisite guest and estate houses and more than 50 recreational activities including three championship golf courses, indoor and outdoor tennis courts a 40,000-square-foot spa and more.

About the Greenbrier

Property: The Greenbrier is an award-winning resort located in White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia. A National Historic Landmark, The Greenbrier represents 230 years of history with its classic architecture, exquisite interior design, carefully sculpted landscape, impeccable service and outstanding amenities. This renowned property offers 635 rooms, including 33 suites and 97 guest and estate houses. The Greenbrier has 10 lobbies, more than 40 meeting rooms and a complete conference center facility. Guests enjoy over 50 recreational activities including three championship golf courses, indoor and outdoor tennis courts, a 40,000 square foot spa and a wide variety of other amenities. The Greenbrier provides accommodations and activities to please individuals, couples, families and conference groups.

Location: The beautiful Allegheny Mountains in White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia provide the setting for The Greenbrier's 6,500 acre estate. Located just off Interstate 64, The Greenbrier is easily accessible from most major cities by air, auto or train.

Location

Upper Lobby: Known as The Greenbriers living room, the stunning Upper Lobby is a series of lobbies and sitting rooms with the designing touch of Dorothy Draper. Decorated with antiques and historic paintings, bright colors and floral designs, the soaring ceilings and cozy fireplace make the Upper Lobby the ideal place to enjoy an afternoon tea and concert. Carleton Varney, president of the Dorothy Draper Company, oversees all interior design of The Greenbrier.

Dining: The Greenbrier cuisine is a delight like no other. From the formal Main Dining Room to the more casual Sam Sneads at the Golf Club, dining is an event. Breakfast and dinner are served daily in the elegant Main Dining Room and are comprised of a delectable combination of classical, continental and American cuisine prepared by a team of chefs, many of whom were trained in The Greenbrier Culinary Apprenticeship Program. Drapers, named for the famed designer Dorothy Draper, serves lunch and offers dessert and fountain soda specialties. At Sam Sneads at the Golf Club, guests can enjoy lunch or dinner and a spectacular view of The Greenbriers three championship golf courses. The culinary delights at Sam Sneads at the Golf Club are prepared in an open kitchen featuring a wood-burning oven. Also located at the Golf Club is Slammir Sammys, serving snacks with large screen televisions for sports viewing as well as billiards, foosball and other games. The Rhododendron Café, located adjacent to the indoor pool and Tree Tops Cafe, at the outdoor pool, offer a wide range of snacks and beverages.

Conference center: With many guests visiting as part of a conference, The Greenbrier is the ideal location for groups from 10 to 1200. Offering more than 85,000 square feet of flexible, state-of-the-art meeting areas and more than 40 meeting rooms and event venues The Greenbriers dedicated conference services team is devoted to providing the best in conference management, amenities and service.

Guest rooms: All Greenbrier guests enjoy lavish accommodations decorated by Carleton Varney, president of Dorothy Draper and Company, Inc., New York. The Greenbrier offers 635 guest bedrooms, including 33 suites and 97 guest and estate houses, all with full access to guest services.

Golf: Since 1910, golf has been an important part of life at The Greenbrier. With three championship courses and The Greenbrier Golf Academy, The Greenbrier is unmatched in its dedication to golfers. The first eighteen hole course, The Old White, was designed by Charles Blair MacDonald in 1913. The course was recently restored as part of a four-year project to return its original design by Lester George. The Greenbrier Course was built in 1924 and renovated in 1977 by Jack Nicklaus. In 1979 the Greenbrier Course hosted the International Ryder Cup Matches and in 1994, was the site of the Solheim Cup Matches. The Meadows Course, formerly known as the Lakeside Course, reopened in 1999 after a complete course redesign by Robert Cupp. Also in 1994, The Greenbrier named the legendary Sam Snead as the resorts Golf
